BOSTON ENCAMPMENT.

THE Boston Encampment of Knights Templar was founded in 1806 by members of a Council of Knights of the Red Cross, which was commenced in 1802. Of those who received the Order in 1806, two venerable men now survive, viz:—Robert Lash and John B. Hammatt.

Five hundred and seventyfive have been created Knights in the Boston Encampment. Among these are to be numbered very many of the most active and respectable among Freemasons. In the “dark hour” the little band of that day well sustained the whole institution in this State, and the “Protest” of 6,000 good men and true, which did more than any thing else, but a good Providence, to disabuse the public, emanated from this Body; the production of one, who, widely known in Masonry, still continues to diffuse our light, and shed our kindly influences.

An Encampment at Lowell has been formed mostly by those who had received their Orders and were members with the Boston Encampment; and the De Molay Encampment, of this city, was founded by those who were also of that "household," and were among its best and most loved. They have carried the good seed, which has brought forth abundantly, and our Sister Association of Knights, like the Parent, is in the full tide of successful operation.

The Boston Encampment, by far the most numerous Body of Knights Templars in Massachusetts, (and we are not aware of a larger number throughout the United States,) has now more than two hundred members. There have been since its organization in 1806, eighteen Grand Commanders, fifteen of whom now survive. Henry Fowle presided nearly twentyfive years. The following is a

COPY OF THE CHARTER.

THOMAS S. WEBB, Gen. Gd. Master.

HENRY FOWLE, Gd. Generalissimo.

JONATHAN GAGE, Gd. Capt. General.

To all whom it may concern—

The United States General Grand Encampment of Knights of the Red Cross, Knights Templars and Knights of Malta convened and assembled in the Town of Providence, in the State of Rhode Island, on the third day of March, Anno Domini 1806,

SEND GREETING,

Whereas, a petition has been presented to this Grand Encampment from Henry Fowle, Samuel Billings, Benjamin Smith, Joshua Eaton, Thomas Jackson, Andrew Sigourney, Edward Horsman, and Benjamin Hurd, Jr., residents of the Town of Boston and its vicinity, in the State of Massachusetts, all true and courteous Knights of the Red Cross, Knights Templars and Knights of Malta, stating that they have heretofore assembled together, as was the custom of the Knights previous to the establishment of the General Grand Encampment, and exercised the privilege of forming and opening an occasional Council of Knights of the Red Cross, and Encampment of Knights Templars and of Malta, for the benefit of the Institution and its members,—but being deeply impressed with a sense of the necessity and importance of discipline and subordination, and persuaded that in order to support the honor and dignity of the institution, it is essentially necessary that there should be an acknowledged head and tribunal of superior authority, to protect their rights and privileges, and to redress their wrongs and injuries,—they therefore pray for a Charter of Recognition, extending and confirming unto them the rights and privileges of a regularly constituted Encampment.

Now be it Known, That we, the General Grand Encampment aforesaid, considering that the interest of the institution will be promoted by granting the prayer of the said petition, have authorized and empowered, and do by these presents authorize and empower the said Henry Fowle and his associates aforesaid to form, open and hold a regular and constitutional Encampment of the valiant and magnanimous Orders of Knights of the Red Cross, Knights Templars and Knights of Malta of the Order of St. John of Jerusalem, by the name, style and title of the Boston Encampment, No. 2, to confer these Orders respectively upon tried and worthy candidates, to make by-laws and ordinances for their own government, to admit members: and to do and transact all such matters and things as are lawful and proper to be done and transacted in such an Assembly. And, furthermore, we do hereby declare the rank and precedence of the said Boston Encampment, in the Grand Encampment and elsewhere to be the second from us and from said Boston Encampment, we do nominate and appoint

Sir HENRY FOWLE to be the first Gd. Master.

Sir SAMUEL BILLINGS to be the first Generalissimo.

Sir BENJAMIN SMITH to be the first Capt. General.

Sir JOSHUA EATON to be the first Senior Warden.

Sir THOMAS JACKSON to be the first Junior Warden.

Sir ANDREW SIGOURNEY to be the first Treasurer.

Sir EDWARD HORSMAN to be the first Recorder.

And we do hereby enjoin it upon the said Boston Encampment to see that these Officers are regular in their attendance upon the assemblies of the General Gd. Encampment, in person or by proxy, to be punctual in making their returns to the Gd. Recorder, and the payment of their dues to the Grand Treasurer, and to conform in all their doings to the Constitution and the Edicts of the General Gd. Encampment, otherwise this Charter and the privileges hereby granted to cease, and to be of no further effect.

In testimony whereof, we have hereunto set our hands and caused the seal of the General Grand Encampment to be hereunto annexed the day and year first above written.

Attest,

OTIS AMMIDON,
